Describe a conflict you had with another person and how you were able to resolve it. What would you do differently?

Why do you want to be a part of Chico Project this summer? What are your expectations? What do you hope to get from your participation?

Relational Skills

Do you consider yourself teachable? Why or why not?

What are your personal strengths?

What are your personal weaknesses?

The Heart Attitudes

An important part of Chico Project is living in a Christlike way that honors God and others. The Heart Attitudes are seven biblical foundations for living in such a way. These values, adopted by Challenge CSUC, are meaningful for your relationships with others and for the success of Chico Project as a whole. Please carefully read these and commit to spending the summer with these attitudes in mind.

1. Put the goals and interests of others above my own.

"Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others."

Philippians 2:3-4 ESV

2. Live an honest, open life before others.

"Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to your neighbor, for we are all members of one body."

Ephesians 4:25 NIV

3. Give and receive Scriptural correction.

"But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin."

Hebrews 3:13 ESV

4. Clear up relationships.

"So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

Matthew 5:23-24 ESV

5. Participate in the ministry of the church.

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace"

1 Peter 4:10 ESV

6. Support the work financially.

"On the first day of each week, you should each put aside a portion of the money you have earned. Don't wait until I get there and then try to collect it all at once."

1 Corinthians 16:2 NLT

7. Follow spiritual leadership within Scriptural limits and make it a joy for them.

"Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with grief, for this would be unprofitable for you."

Hebrews 13:17 NASB

I have read the Heart Attitudes and commit to abiding by them as a disciple of Christ and as a member of Chico Project.
